KAISER FOR LAWS AGAINST WAR PROFITS

West Coast Shipbuilder Says Incentive Production Essential to Winning a War

HEARING NEARING END

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Henry J. Kaiser today told a congressional committee investigating his wartime earnings that he would favor any system congress could develop to take all profits out of war.

It would be helpful, the west coast shipbuilder said as he returned for a third day of questioning by the house merchant marine committee, if congress could arrange it so no one would "make a dime" out of war.

"But," he added, he knows of no country that has won a war without an incentive to production. "If you can do it by a system of soup kitchens to take care of all of us, I'll be for it," he said. "If you want to put everyone in soup kitchens to no one makes a dime, it's up to congress to write the laws that way."

Kaiser has insisted that he made no excessive profits out of his shipbuilding operations. On the other hand, he told the committee he and his family face a potential loss of $13,000,000.

Chairman Bland (D-Va.) announced that the hearings would end Friday afternoon to give the committee members an opportunity to return home for election campaigning. It may be resumed, he said, after the November elections.

Still to testify are representatives of 15 other shipbuilding companies whose wartime activities are under scrutiny.

Going into details of his operations, Kaiser told the committee he took charge of the Rheims Construction Company yards at Liverpool, R. I., because the Maritime Commission "begged us to do it." The yard subsequently was operated by the Walsh-Kaiser Company and Kaiser testified that the Walsh Construction Company and others besides himself and his affiliates had the controlling interest.

"It was no job that was attractive to us," he said, but the maritime commission "wanted to produce ships fast and cheap."

The portly west coast industrialist was recalled by the house merchant marine committee to clarify two days of previous testimony which Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.) said had left the group "in a temple of confusion."

STRONG EARTHQUAKE IN WEST INDIES AREA

Weston, Mass., Sept. 25.—(P)—A "quite strong" earthquake, the latest in a series of approximately 300 quakes recorded in the West Indies area in the vicinity of Puerto Rico since last August 8, was registered at the Weston College seismograph station this morning.

The Rev. Daniel Linehan said the earth tremors began at 5:09:41, Eastern Standard Time, and continued for 1½ hours.

NAZIS TO HEAR FATE BEGINNING MONDAY

Nuernberg, Sept. 25.—(P)—An official announcement said today the judgments of the international military tribunal against 22 Nazi leaders of Germany and seven German organizations on war crimes charges would be handed down on schedule beginning next Monday at 10 a. m. (3 a. m. EST).

Reece Hits Back At Truman Statement About Emergency

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Republicans, seizing upon President Truman's assertion that this country is in as great an emergency now as when Pearl Harbor was hit, came back today with a counterblast.

Declaring that the emergency bill continues "until we can get peace and production," Mr. Truman added in his first major push into the congressional campaign, "that's the program of a Democratic party."

In an informal address to a group of 39 Democratic nominees on 17 states who called at the White House yesterday, the president charged the Republicans with "obstructionist tactics" and "thwarting the election of a con-

Strike Gets Union Leader Year in Jail

George Mueller, president of an independent union of Pittsburgh power workers, is led off to jail by the sheriff after being sentenced to a year in jail for contempt of court. Judge Harry Rowand handed down the sentence after the union leader refused to call off a strike of Pittsburgh Power Company employees in compliance with a court anti-strike order, and termed the order "just a scrap of paper."

Suspect Atom Bomb Test Ships of Being Dangerous

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Operation Crossroads today announced that about 75 atom bomb test ships "suspected of being dangerous" have been quarantined until they are made "radiologically safe."

The ships, part of the joint Army-Navy task force that carried 40,000 men through the Bikini tests, are berthed on the west coast and at Pearl Harbor.

The announcement said an unexpected "radioactive residue" was found in the salt water lines and condensers of some of the returning vessels when they underwent a "precautionary check."

"We have not had any casualties from radioactivity during Operation Crossroads and we most certainly are not going to take any chances now," said Capt. George M. Lyon, task force safety officer. The announcement said there is no danger to anyone not working on the ships, nor are harbors or docking facilities affected.

To the surprise of test officials, radioactive residue was found in salt water pipes and condensers of ships arriving on the west coast.

An immediate quarantine of all vessels affected was ordered and a special safety school has been set up in Washington to train 100 officers quickly for decontamination duty.

Ships affected are berthed at San Diego, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle and at Pearl Harbor.

In all, approximately 100 ships were involved, but about 25 with the least amount of radiation were declared safe after examination.

A task force official said it had not been realized that the radioactive residue "would reach such magnitude and be so persistent."

Headlee Guilty Of Rape - Slaying

Waynesburg, Sept. 25.—(P)—William Headlee, 20 year old World War II veteran, today awaited sentence on his second degree murder conviction in the rape-slaying of Mrs. Harriet Walker, jury of four women and eight men deliberated five hours last night before arriving at the verdict. The state sought a first degree conviction.

Headlee's counsel requested a four-day stay of sentence. Second degree murder carries penalty of 10 to 20 years.

The murder of Mrs. Walker was described by Special Prosecutor Harold Waychoff as "one of the most horrible" in the history of Greene county. She was found, stabbed 20 times, in her blood-soaked bed last May 17. Headlee was lying asleep beside her.

Five-Cent Air Mail Inaugurated Today

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Marking the initial sale of five-cent air mail stamps, Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan sent off the nation's first "Flying Post Office" today with a statement that in five years delivery anywhere on the globe should take no more than 40 hours.

Hannegan spoke at a ceremony in connection with the experimental flight of a four-engine Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., cargo plane with its cabin modified to approximate a railway mail car.

While the plane flies to Dayton, Ohio, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York, six mail clerks will sort a ton of first-day covers sent by stamp collectors to Washington for a special cachet.

Five-cent airmail will become effective Oct. 1.

REJECT SOVIET DEMAND FOR A TROOP REPORT

Security Council Takes a Holiday After Calendar Is Cleared of All Business

WILL MEET THURSDAY

Lake Success, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(P)—The United Nations Security Council took a holiday today after voting down Russia's demand for a far-reaching troop report—the second setback for the Soviet Union within a week—and thus clearing its calendar of all business for the first time in a month.

The ballot against admitting Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko's proposal to the agenda was 7 to 2, with only Poland joining in support. The United States, Great Britain, China, Australia, Mexico, The Netherlands and Brazil opposed with France and Egypt abstaining. Gromyko had asked that the Council order detailed reports within two weeks from countries having troops and bases in alien non-enemy nations.

This followed the 9 to 2 defeat last Friday of the Soviet Ukrainian's charges that Greece, with the presence of British soldiers a principal factor, threatened peace in the Balkans.

The next council meeting, a secret one, was set for 11:30 a. m. tomorrow, at which time delegates will study the text of their report to the general assembly which meets Oct. 23.

While the weary delegates looked for a respite from long sessions of the last month over new members, the Greek case and the troop report, there was a possibility that the charges against Franco Spain might be brought up again.

Poland's early summer complaint against the Falangist regime still remains on the pending docket subject to call by any delegate. Dr. Oscar Lange, the Polish representative, served notice at the time the Council refused to order a worldwide rupture of relations with Madrid that he would attempt to re-open the whole case before the assembly met.

Reached at his home, Dr. Lange said "no decision has been made" and declined to discuss the possibilities further.

Four Radio Stations Are Hit By Strike

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—(P)—Westinghouse radio stations in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Boston and Springfield, Mass., were operating normally today after a walkout of members of the unaffiliated National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians interrupted broadcasts last night.

Executive and supervisory forces took over operation of the stations after some broadcasts were interrupted for as long as an hour and a half by the walkout.

Executive of the radio stations said the walkout started after the union rejected a company offer of a $45 minimum—$90 maximum for a 40-hour week.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—Supervisory employees were operating radio station KDKA today after an 80-minute suspension last night following a strike of 20 engineers at the Grant building studios and Allison Park transmitter.

The strike, which occurred simultaneously at Westinghouse stations in Philadelphia, Boston, and Springfield, Mass., was called by the National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians.

The dispute involves a wage issue, closed shop, compulsory arbitration, seniority and retroactive pay. Negotiations have been under way since June 6.

Prices For Shortening And Scaled Oils To Hike

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Prices for margarine, shortening and salad and cooking oils headed upward today.

An OPA official told a reporter ceilings for consumer packages of these items will have to be raised "at least two cents" as a result of a decision by Stabilization Director John R. Steelman that higher prices are justified for oil ingredients.

Steelman, called in to arbitrate a dispute between OPA and the agriculture department sided with the latter agency in announcing his decision last night.

Germany Poses Acid Test For Stalin's Prediction Of Cooperation With Powers

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Germany appears today to pose the acid test for Prime Minister Stalin's prediction of cooperation between the western powers and Russia.

Diplomatic authorities say that insofar as Stalin's latest statement foreshadows a determined Soviet effort to get along with the western powers, the key issue this fall is certain to be the future of the German nation.

With many other problems now under attack at the Paris peace conference, the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France tentatively expect to get to the German issue in a new four-power meeting soon after the Paris sessions wind up.

Even before that there are at least two ways, according to American authorities, in which the Russians might find an opportunity to go along toward achieving what Stalin calls "the demilitarization and democratization of Germany."

One of these is the American plan—thus far accepted only by the British—for handling Germany as an economic unit.

The other bears directly on the demilitarization question and arises from the fact that American officials have numerous reports that Russians are operating a variety of armament factories in their zone of Germany.

Some officials suggested that if the Russians really want an early solution of the German problem they could begin at once by joining in the Anglo-American economic agreement and also start eliminating war industries in eastern Germany.

London, Sept. 25.—(P)—A British foreign office spokesman told a news conference today Britain welcomed Prime Minister Stalin's statement that no real danger of a new war threatened, and said the British will now await the effects of his remarks at the peace conference and United Nations meetings.

Another official close to Prime Minister Attlee's residence expressed a view that Stalin's observations would presage an important change in the direction and technique of Russian foreign policy, but that facts alone would show whether this expectation was warranted.

He did differ with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin on the issue of what reports the plenipotentiary sessions should consider. Molotov said it should handle only those amendments voted on in the commissions, while Bevin contended that all amendments, including any which failed of decision in the commissions, should come before the plenipotentiary sessions.

One diplomat who attended the Big Four meeting said Molotov did not press the point, but reserved the right to bring it up later.

Canada Squatters Take Over Barracks

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(P)—War-veteran squatters pushed their way past police and soldiers last night and moved approximately 40 families into a navy training building and a one-time Women's Army Corps barracks in Canada's capital.

The Ottawa Veterans' Housing League, headed by F. E. Hanratty, sent trunks of belongings from Victoria Park to the H. M. C. S. Carleton, at Dow's Lake on the southwest side, and thence to Lansdowne Park, former army depot on the south side near the Rideau canal.

They occupied the army depot despite resistance of four squad cars of city police.

Earlier, the veterans' group had threatened to take over the Royal Canadian Air Force's Princess Alice barracks here. Air Minister Colin Gibson said guards would resist any such move.

Steelworkers Out In Sympathy Move

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—A work stoppage apparently inspired by sympathy with George L. Mueller, jailed president of a power workers' union, started today among workers of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation.

Mueller was given a year's term yesterday for contempt of court by calling Pittsburgh's power strike in defiance of an injunction forbidding the strike.

The J. & L. plants are unionized by the CIO-United Steel Workers. About 70 men were reported to have left their jobs at the corporation's Second Avenue plant.

Last night Local Union 1847 of the CIO-United Steelworkers in nearby Hazelwood, where the plant is located, telegraphed Mayor David L. Lawrence protesting "union-breaking tactics."

COMMANDO KELLY TO "STUMP" THE STATE

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—Charles E. (Commando) Kelly, who won a Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery in Italy, is about to launch a new beachhead. A registered Democrat, he is going into Republican politics.

Kelly, who announced he was giving up the filling station he has operated for 10 months, said he was going on a speaking tour for the Young Republicans. He expects to "cover" Pennsylvania, generally appealing to the veterans.

MKEAN FATALITY

Kane, Sept. 25.—(P)—McKean County Coroner Elmer Beatty said the body of Roy W. Hunt, 48, of Rexford, was found yesterday between the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Shawmut and Northern Railroad, a half mile from Kasson. Beatty said the man had apparently fallen off a train.

CIO COUNCIL IS CONSIDERING CITY-WIDE WALKOUT UNLESS LEADER OF UNION IS FREED

Nine Men Facing Contempt Charges Arrive In Court Hour After Deadline But Give No Indication of How They Will Reply

SUSPENSION CONTINUES DESPITE INJUNCTION

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—A showdown neared today in an Allegheny county court room on Pittsburgh's power strike amid hints from CIO unionists of a possible general strike call in the city unless the leader of the power union is freed from jail, where he was lodged last night for contempt of court.

A three-judge court was preparing to act on its warning to nine strike leaders leaders that they also would face contempt charges unless the strike is called off.

Meanwhile, the executive board of East Pittsburgh Local of the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers Union asked the CIO Steel City Industrial Council, representing 200,000 workers, to hold a meeting at which the board said it would present a resolution asking "a general CIO strike if Mueller is still in jail." No time for the meeting was suggested.

The power strike, called in spite of an injunction against it, was still on this afternoon.

The nine men arrived in court an hour after the deadline but gave no indication of how they would reply to the court's order.

BULLETIN

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—A nine-man strike committee announced in court today its recommendation that 3,500 striking utility workers end a two-day-old power walkout which had benumbed industry and business life in the steel capital. The committee men said through counsel that the union membership would vote tonight on a new company proposal to settle the dispute. Details of the company's offer were unannounced. The committee said it would urge that the members accept the offer.

The unexpected offer came as negotiations of the strike piled up and on end. Many thousands of workers, unable to get to their jobs because of curtailment of street car transportation, were idle. A further county court decision was awaited on an anti-strike injunction unique in Pittsburgh labor circles. Unionists claimed there is no law to make men work.

Opening of court was delayed, indicating a three-judge banc was considering the case.

Awaiting the court's order, a crowd of several thousand spectators and strikers gathered outside the courthouse. Strike sympathy shouts were heard, but the crowd kept orderly.

The court yesterday sentenced George L. Mueller, president of the striking union, to one year in the strike-affected area of 817 square miles known as the world over for its smoky steel mills.

A work stoppage apparently inspired by sympathy with Mueller, the jailed union leader, began among Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. workers at Pittsburgh. About 700 were idle.

The injunction-defying strike sprang from a long-argued contract dispute between the union and light company. The union, among a number of demands, asked a 20 percent wage boost. This, the union said, would raise the present average pay from $1.18 to about $1.41 an hour.

It was Pittsburgh's third power strike in little more than seven months. The current of the strike is the longest of all three, the first (last February) having lasted 19 hours and the second (Sept. 10) but one hour.

There was enough current to furnish home and street lighting and to permit necessary office activity, but not enough to keep all mills and coal mines operating normally.

A general appeal to the public "to save electricity" was issued through newspapers and over radios, and the company went through the day's peak periods (Turn to Page Nine)

Auto Licenses For Vets Simplified

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—(P)—Disabled war veterans who are entitled, under a recent act of congress, to own and operate specially built motor vehicles, will have the co-operation of state officials in obtaining licenses in Pennsylvania.

Secretary of Revenue David W. Harris said yesterday these eligible veterans fall into two classes: First, those who have been issued operators' licenses since leaving hospitals, and second, those who have never held licenses, or who have not re-applied for them.

He outlined this procedure: Those in the first classification should forward Form V. A. 4502, issued by the Veterans Administration, to the state revenue department for certification and it will be returned immediately.

Those in the second classification should apply for a learner's permit, and they will be given a prompt state police examination.

Upon passing this examination, said Harris, the veteran must forward Form V. A. 4502 to the Department for certification.

AFL Organization May Stay Neutral

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—(P)—A possibility that the AFL-Pennsylvania's Federation of Labor may remain neutral in the 1946 political campaign developed today as the federation's council met to consider the question.

President James L. McDevitt mentioned that possibility, but said the question of whether or not to endorse candidates will be decided by the 15-member council.

The CIO-Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council has endorsed state-wide candidates of the Democratic party, headed by U. S. Senator Joseph P. Cuffey for re-election, and John S. Rice for governor.

A statement issued by the federation's council said its members would review labor planks in the Republican and Democratic platforms during consideration of the position to be taken "with respect to political participation in the general election."

1,006 AT ALLEGHENY

Meadville, Sept. 25.—(P)—A record enrollment of 1,006—topping by 225 the all-time high of 1940-41—was reported by Allegheny College today. Of the 588 male students, 450 are veterans.

Heavy Fighting Is Raging In North Greece

By ARTHUR GAVSHON
London, Sept. 25.—(P)—A foreign office spokesman declared today the heavy fighting in northern Greece now amounted to a "small-scale civil war" and said evidence presented British representatives by the Greek government indicated the dissident forces were being armed from Yugoslavia and Albania.

British troops could be called upon to act only "in a last resort," the foreign office official said, and would not be used unless the Greek government specifically requested such aid.

On the eve of King George II's return to his throne, the Greek government presented evidence to the British that the forces now being opposed by Greek troops were being armed "from the outside," the spokesman said. Pressed to identify the countries involved, the official said they were "Yugoslavia and Albania," he added, however, that no units of foreign troops were involved, so far as he knew.

"We have no reason to doubt the Greek government's evidence," he said.

The spokesman said he "did not know" whether the present fighting in northern Greece was in any way connected with the pending return of King George II to his throne. The Greek monarch was expected to leave London today.

PATIENTS AT DESHON

Butler, Sept. 25.—(P)—Deshon Veterans Administration Hospital has begun to receive its first patients, but on a limited basis, owing to the fact the medical staff is not yet at full strength. A "select type of patient," at the rate of five a day is being received but the hospital expects to be ready for regular admission at an early date, a VA announcement said.

Reece Hits Back At Truman Statement About Emergency

Washington, Sept. 25.—(P)—Republicans, seizing upon President Truman's assertion that the country is in as great an emergency now as when Pearl Harbor was hit, came back today with the charge that "if we are in as great an emergency as Mr. Truman indicates, whose fault is it?"

"He and his administration have been in power with overwhelming majority in both branches of congress," Reece added. "No leadership has been in evidence. Mr. Truman is simply in water over his head."

Mr. Truman had pointed to the fact that two other Republicans in voicing his contention of G. O. P. "obstructions" and describing the Democratic party as "the party of progress."

Peace Parley Spurs Effort To Meet Deadline

By REILMAN MORIN
Paris, Sept. 25.—(P)—The general opinion prevailed in peace conference corridors today that Prime Minister Stalin's latest pronouncement on world affairs would aid materially in speeding the work of the 21-nation parley and thus enable it to meet an Oct. 15 deadline for completing five treaties.

The foreign ministers of the Big Four, all of whom read the Russian leader's statements carefully before convening today, apparently with a minimum of difficulty and bickering—designed to get the work of the conference's commissions finished and get their recommendations before plenary sessions in time to adjourn by Oct. 15.

As this speeding program now stands, the commissions will be urged to apply a gag rule on long-winded speakers and will be required to take a vote on every issue before them by Oct. 5. Russian and other Slavic delegates have reacted violently heretofore to any suggestion that debate be limited, but Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov agreed to it last night.

He did differ with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin on the issue of what reports the plenary sessions should consider. Molotov said it should handle only those amendments voted on in the commissions, while Bevin contended that all amendments, including any which failed of decision in the commissions, should come before the plenary sessions.

One diplomat who attended the Big Four meeting said Molotov did not press the point, but reserved the right to bring it up later.

Canada Squatters Take Over Barracks

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(P)—War-veteran squatters pushed their way past police and sailors last night and moved approximately 40 families into a navy training building and a one-time Women's Army Corps barracks in Canada's capital.

The Ottawa Veterans' Housing League, headed by F. E. Harratty, sent truckloads of homeless from Victoria Park to the H. M. C. S. Carleton, at Dow's Lake on the southwest side, and then to Lansdowne Park, former army depot on the south side near the Rideau canal.

They occupied the army depot despite resistance of four squad cars of city police.

Earlier, the veterans' group had threatened to take over the Royal Canadian Air Force's Princess Alice barracks here. Air Minister Colin Gibson said guards would resist any such move.

Steelworkers Out In Sympathy Move

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—A work stoppage apparently inspired by sympathy with George L. Mueller, jailed president of a power workers union, started today among workers of the Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation.

Mueller was given a year's term yesterday for contempt of court by calling Pittsburgh's power strike in defiance of an injunction forbidding the strike.

The J. & L. plants are unionized by the CIO-United Steel Workers.

About 700 men were reported to have left their jobs at the corporation's Second Avenue plant.

Last night Local Union 1843 of the CIO-United Steelworkers in nearby Hazelwood, where the plant is located, telegraphed Mayor David L. Lawrence protesting "union-breaking tactics."

COMMANDO KELLY TO "STUMP" THE STATE

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—Charles E. (Commando) Kelly, who won a Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery in Italy, is about to launch a new beachhead. A registered Democrat, he is going into Republican politics.

Kelly, who announced he was giving up the filling station he has operated for 10 months, said he was going on a speaking tour for the Young Republicans. He expects to "cover" Pennsylvania, generally appealing to the veterans.

FINNISH TREATY IS READY FOR CONSIDERATION OF CONFERENCE

Paris, Sept. 25.—(P)—A peace conference plenary session will be held Friday with approval of the peace treaty with Finland as the first topic on the agenda, the conference secretariat said today.

U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes will preside.

The secretariat said that though the Finnish treaty, the first of five draft texts to be completed, was assigned as the primary topic, a discussion of the Four-Power Foreign Ministers Council's new speed-up program might occupy the greater portion of the meeting time and, in that case, a new session would be required.

Disposal of the Italian colonies of Libya, Eritrea and Somaliland was entrusted today to the four major powers, the United States,

CIO COUNCIL IS CONSIDERING CITY-WIDE WALKOUT UNLESS LEADER OF UNION IS FREED

Nine Men Facing Contempt Charges Arrive In Court Hour After Deadline But Give No Indication of How They Will Reply

SUSPENSION CONTINUES DESPITE INJUNCTION

Pittsburgh, Sept. 25.—(P)—A showdown neared today in an Alleghen county court room on Pittsburgh's power strike amid hints from CIO unionists of a possible general strike call in the city unless the leader of the power union is freed from jail, where he was lodged last night for contempt of court.

A three-judge court was preparing to act on its warning to nine strike leaders that they also would face contempt charges unless the strike is called off.

Meanwhile, the executive board of East Pittsburgh Local of the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers Union asked the CIO Steel City Industrial Council, representing 200,000 workers, to hold a meeting at which the board said it would present a resolution asking "a general CIO strike if Mueller is still in jail." No time for the meeting was suggested.

The power strike, called in spite of an injunction against it, was still on this afternoon.

The nine men arrived in court an hour after the deadline but gave no indication of how they would reply to the court's order.

BULLETIN

A nine-man strike committee announced in court today its recommendation that 3,500 striking utility workers end a two-day-old power walkout which had benumbed industry and business life in the steel capital. The committee men said through counsel that the union membership would vote tonight on a new company proposal to settle the dispute. Details of the company's offer were unannounced. The committee said it would urge that the members accept the offer.

The unexpected offer came as negotiations of the strike piled up on end. Many thousands of workers, unable to get to their jobs because of curtailment of street car transportation, were idle. A further county court decision was awaited on an anti-strike injunction unique in Pittsburgh labor circles. Unionists claimed there is no law to make men work.

Auto Licenses For Vets Simplified

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—(P)—Disabled war veterans who are entitled, under a recent act of congress, to own and operate specially built motor vehicles, will have the operation of state officials in obtaining licenses in Pennsylvania.

Secretary of Revenue David W. Harris said yesterday these eligible veterans fall into two classes: First, those who have been issued operators' licenses since leaving hospitals, and second, those who have never held licenses, or who have not re-applied for them.

He outlined this procedure: Those in the first classification should forward "Form V. A. 4502" issued by the Veterans Administration, to the state revenue department for certification and it will be returned immediately.

Those in the second classification should apply for a learner's permit, and they will be given a prompt state police examination.

Upon passing this examination, said Harris, the veteran must forward "Form V. A. 4502" to the Department for certification.

AFL Organization May Stay Neutral

Harrisburg, Sept. 25.—(P)—A possibility that the AFL-Pennsylvania's Federation of Labor may remain neutral in the 1949 political campaign developed today as the federation's council met to consider the question.

President James L. McDewitt mentioned that possibility, but said the question of whether or not to endorse candidates will be decided by the 15-member council.

The CIO-Pennsylvania Industrial Union Council has endorsed state-wide candidates of the Democratic party, headed by U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffey for re-election, and John S. Rice for governor.

A statement issued by the federation said its members would review labor planks in the Republican and Democratic platforms during consideration of the position to be taken "with respect to political participation in the general election."

1,006 AT ALLEGHENY

Meadville, Sept. 25.—(P)—A record enrollment of 1,006—topping by 225 the all-time high of 1940-41—was reported by Allegheny College today. Of the 598 male students, 450 are veterans.

How Do You Know What Is Enough?

If you have been taking Vitamins by some rule of your own, or at the advice of a friend, perhaps it is a mistaken choice. How can you tell what your system needs? ## State Police Won Shoot At Club Picnic

One of the big features of the recent Field and Stream Club picnic held at Wilder Field, September 15, was the pistol shoot between State Police and the City police. The State Police took the match and turned their prize over to the Alias Santa Claus Fund, of the Times-Mirror.

Teams and scores were:

State Police
Anthony Vavereck ..... 270
J. Vaughn ..... 252
L. Fobes ..... 204
Total ..... 726

City Police
Floyd Russell ..... 248
Charles Musante ..... 223
Joe Shearer ..... 211
Total ..... 687

Following the match the high man on each team shot a match with a pair of nylon hose for a prize. Tall Tony Vavereck won with a score of 271 to Floyd Russell's 239. Vavereck was presented with the hose but only held them for a short time as Mrs. Vavereck promptly annexed them.

Plans are being laid for the formation of a pistol shooting league this fall with teams from the State Police, City Police and several of the sportsmen's clubs.

Nelson Johnson Has Article In Magazine

Just received in pamphlet form, as a reprint from the July issue of "Mental Hygiene," is a fine article on "The Growing Problem of Old-age Psychoses," written by Nelson A. Johnson, director of social service at Warren State Hospital.

The work is an analysis of the increasing trend along this line, as evidenced in research of the local institutions' records from 1910 to 1944, and its inclusion in "Mental Hygiene" was a decided compliment to the local writer.

"There has been an increasing amount of speculation," says the article, "as to the social and economic changes that may be expected as the population of the nation includes an ever-larger proportion of elderly people. There is general realization of the fact that mental-hospital admissions of aged patients have steadily increased, but references to the subject are generalized, with few detailed analyses of the extent or importance of the trend. The present study shows the growing importance of old-age admissions in the experience of Warren State Hospital and attempts to predict future trends in mental-hospital admissions as the general population becomes older."

CAMPAIGN NEWS

RICE

New Bloomfield, Sept. 25—(P)—Col. John S. Rice, Democratic candidate for governor, predicts that Pennsylvania's rural counties will poll one of the largest Democratic votes ever seen in the state at the November election.

It took some time for the farmer to make up his mind that the Republican party did not truly represent his interests," Rice said last night at a Perry county political rally.

He added that many farmers have told him "they were glad that I, a farmer, had been selected by the Democratic party as a candidate for governor."

Rice promised the farmers hard-surfaced roads, scientific research to produce better crops and "a program of advertising and marketing Pennsylvania's products which will sell those products at higher prices."

DUFF

Wellsville, Sept. 25—(P)—"Recent revelations at Washington," declared Attorney General James H. Duff, "of various enterprises, working for the government, is symptomatic of the general break-down of the present administration."

DUFF, Republican nominee for governor, said the Democratic national administration "has failed in the supreme duty of protecting the people against graft and corruption in public matters."

In an address here last night at a Tioga county political rally he noted that "in a year when America has the greatest corn crop in history, the crop on which cattle are fattened, the people of America are unable to buy meat."

Blaming the meat shortage on the present national administration Duff said "this is a supreme example of what interference by bureaucrats can do to a great industry."

FATAL ENDORSEMENT

If Henry Wallace, private citizen, has more success promoting his concept of American foreign policy than did Henry Wallace, Secretary of Commerce, it won't be the fault of the American Communist party, says James Thrasher in an editorial written for NEA Service, Inc., and the Times-Mirror. For the domestic Reds, never embarrassed by inconsistency, managed to flout and contradict the Wallace policy in the course of endorsing it.

Mr. Wallace, in the speech that led to his Cabinet departure, said, "We should recognize that we have no more business in the political affairs of Eastern Europe than Russia has in the political affairs of Latin America, Western Europe and the United States."

But anyone who reads knows that Russia has long made a business of meddling disruptively in the political affairs of North and South America and Western Europe through resident Communist Parties, which follow Russian policy and party line as faithfully as a dog follows its master.

But just in case that practice had been forgotten, William Z. Foster, national Communist chairman, recalled it by attacking the President and American foreign policy in the same speech in which he endorsed Mr. Wallace.

He echoed recent Moscow attacks on our policy by telling an audience of 16,000 in Madison Square Garden (where Mr. Wallace had spoken just a week before) that the Truman administration was supporting an "ill-fated project of establishing capitalist domination over the war-ravaged world," and that Americans were being propagandized for war by a "drunken spree of Soviet-baiting."

The Communist leader clearly displayed the Soviet finger in our political pie. But of course he would never admit the propriety of America's inserting a similar finger in the pastry of Russian politics. All of which served to re-emphasize the unsoundness of Mr. Wallace's principal thesis on international politics—which Mr. Foster professes to support.

The weakness of the Wallace policy seems to be its assumption that American aggressiveness is largely to blame for Soviet-American misunderstandings, and that if we would stop being tough with Russia and try to understand her, most of the misunderstandings would vanish.

Under ideal conditions the Wallace prescription would be easy to follow. But the Russian government has taken almost no initiative toward better relations with us. It has thwarted mutual understanding by forbidding its citizens free intercourse and exchange of ideas with citizens of western lands. It accuses us of "imperialism," and exhorts its people to greater industrial output as protection against "capitalist encirclement" and "inevitable war."

Our gravest problem of foreign policy is how to persuade Russia to stop being tough and try to understand us. And it cannot be solved either by being adamant, or by giving in to every Soviet demand.

Perhaps the most any American policy can hope to do at present is create an atmosphere, through a balance of firmness and compromise, in which the Kremlin will find it expedient to abandon plans of worldwide communism and meet us halfway on the road to peace in a world of live and let live.

That, it seems to us, is what present American policy, with all its imperfections, rather than Mr. Wallace's policy, with all its idealism, is trying to do.

Warren sportsmen who have been endeavoring to secure a recreation park and artificial lake near Clarendon have so far not met with any success. Southwestern Pennsylvania sportsmen, on the other hand, seem to be doing all right, with a series of lakes planned for several counties. However, they are working through the Fish Commission, while Warren county is working through the Department of Forests and Waters.

Congratulations to the State Highway Department workers in this county for their record brought forth at a safety meeting yesterday at the state offices here. Workers have gone 638 days without a lost time accident, which is really a mark to be proud of.

Warren's new radio station is making progress and, if no shortage of material is met with, it should be in operation within the next few weeks. It will be a powerful daylight station and will help put Warren on the map.

"You Don't Know How Sorry I Am, Old Sport"

Washington Daybook

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — A "county fair" has started a campaign to provide a $2,000,000 national home and social center here honoring about 100,000 nurses and medical women who served in World War II.

Sponsored by the Officers' Club of the Army Medical Center, of which Walter Reed Hospital is a part, the fair has set the pattern for similar affairs to be held at service posts throughout the country.

In addition plans for an intensive national campaign to start Sunday, Nov. 17, have been drawn. The officers and enlisted men of the Army, Navy and Air Force Medical Corps are "solidly" behind the nurses in the movement to build them a home, Maj. Gen. Norman T. Kirk, surgeon general of the U. S. Army, says.

"THOSE who know of the sacrifices and the devotion to duty of these valiant soldiers of mercy will wholeheartedly support this endeavor to establish a practical, living memorial," says Gen. Kirk.

Nurses of World War I will also be eligible to take advantage of opportunities offered by the memorial. Mrs. Kirk, wife of the surgeon general, who was herself an Army nurse in World War I, conceived the idea for the Nurses National Memorial as it will be called.

She says many nurses are shattered in health and need a place of their own for rehabilitation. Through their years of service many also have lost contact with their former homes and are alone and need companionship and a sense of belonging.

Mrs. Kirk points out that various gifts may provide:

Library, $100,000; memorial auditorium, $50,000; dining room, $50,000; main lounge, $25,000; kitchen, $15,000; drawing room, $5,000; sitting room, $1,000; bed room, $500; service room, $250.

A TYPICAL service room, she explained, would be a small kitchen for the preparation of snacks, tea, coffee, salads and so forth. It would contain electric equipment and a refrigerator.

Other service rooms would include sewing rooms with electric sewing machines and wash-room with dryer for washing out smudges and with ironing facilities.

Arthur H. Johnson is national chairman of the Nurses National Memorial committee. Jarrett C. White, architect, has drawn the plans of the building and grounds. (National committee headquarters are at 825 Woodward Building, Washington, D. C. Contributions to the fund for the memorial will be received there. Please do not send them to this newspaper.)

Warren and Knaus Rites Announced

On Saturday, September 21, at 10 a. m., Miss Ann Knaus, of North Warren, and Raymond Warren, of Stoneham, were united in matrimony. The ceremony was performed at St. Clara's rectory in Clarendon, Father M. J. Macken officiating.

The bride was attractively attired in an off-the-shoulder gown of white tulle and a fingertip veil cascading from a cluster of orange blossoms. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom and her flowers were red roses.

Miss Margaret Knaus, maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of pink net, with a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

The best man was Leon Lauffenberger, Warren, close friend of the groom.

Miss Carolyn Elniski, Sheffield, was included in the wedding party and wore a frock of powder blue jersey with shoulder corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride party was photographed at the Borg Studio and a delicious wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lauffenberger. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knaus, Sheffield, held a reception for the newlyweds on Sunday, when family and friends showered them with congratulations and best wishes.

On Sunday evening, the young couple left for a honeymoon to Niagara Falls and Canada, stopping on their way home to visit the bridegroom's mother, who is residing in Olean. For traveling, the bride chose a three-piece ensemble of soft gray wool and shoulder corsage of red roses.

Mr. Warren served 21 months with the paratroops and is now employed by the Warren Tank Car Company. Upon returning, the couple will live at the bridegroom's home in Stoneham.

Most of UNRRA's Resources Goes to Red Bloc

Although Russia's contribution to UNRRA is negligible, the USSR and the countries she controls in whole or in part, get some $1,572,000,000—more than half—of UNRRA's total program of $2,945,000,000. Map above shows how some of this huge wealth of goods is distributed to Stalin-bossed countries. Together, Communist-ruled Yugoslavia and Poland get nearly a third of UNRRA's total funds. Of this total, the United States contributes more than as much as the rest of the world combined.

Boy Sues 'Other Woman'

Ten-year-old Jimmy Edler, of Chicago, is the plaintiff in a $50,000,000 alienation of affections suit filed in Washington, charging that an English woman, known only as Nora Doe, stole his father's love and induced him to desert his mother. In the picture of Jimmy and his mother, above, the boy holds a photo of his father, Lt.-Col. James Edler, former chief of the Army Criminal Investigation Division in Europe.

Big Biter

Young woman in photo above is dwarfed by giant clamshell bucket, one of two recently completed in Pittsburgh, Pa., for a Lake Superior coal company, and believed to be the largest of their kind in the world. The bucket, used to transfer coal from lake boats to dock storage, is 22 feet, 6 inches long when open. With one grab it picks up 23½ cubic yards of coal—enough to furnish the average home user with two years' supply and three bites will load a hopper car.

Accident Figures Show West Is a Risky Place to Live

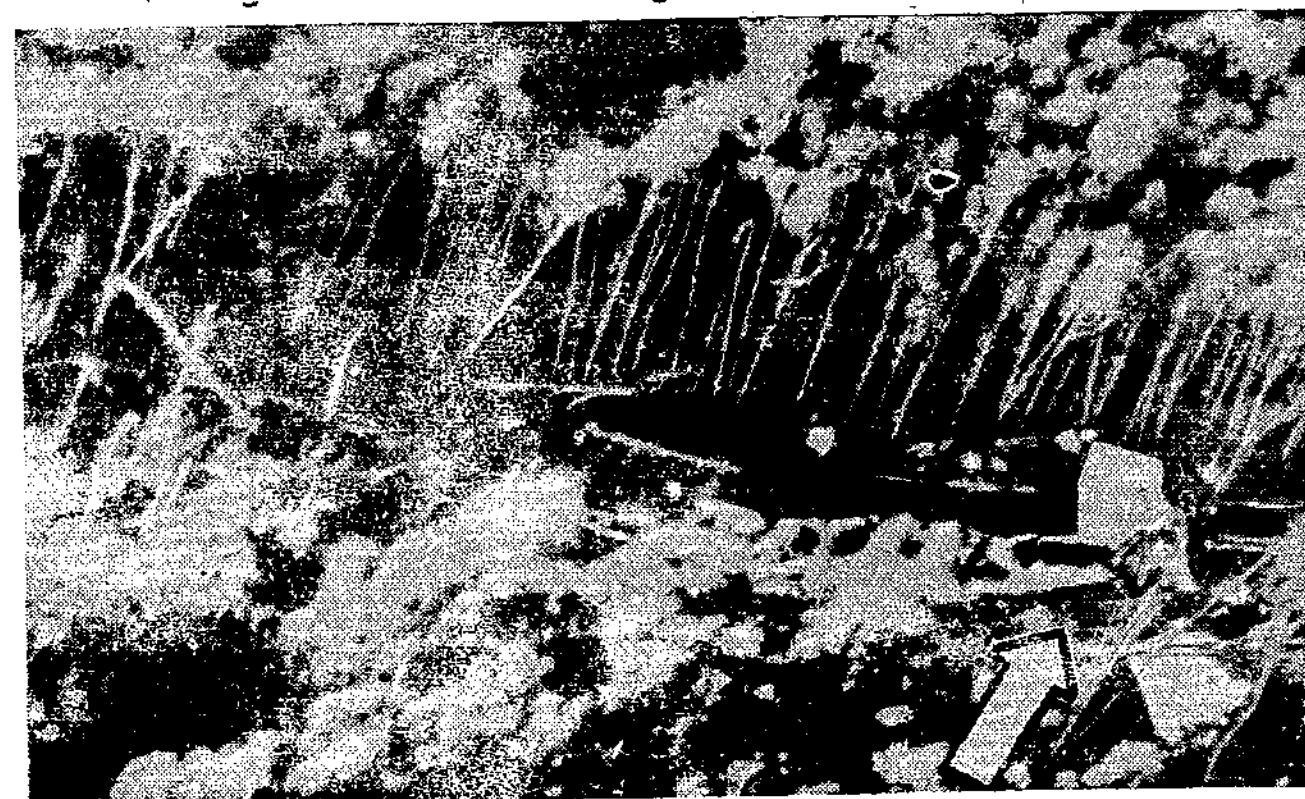

Map above, prepared from National Safety Council data, shows state and regional comparisons of 1945's accidental deaths, based on population. The west proved the most generally hazardous area. Lowest 1945 death rate per 100,000 of population was 51.2, for Rhode Island; Nevada, with 158.9, was highest. Rate for Pennsylvania is an estimate, based on incomplete information.

Charred debris of the Belgian airliner that crashed in a dense forest of Newfoundland is indicated by arrow above. Broken trees at left indicate the path which the stricken plane cut through the woods as it fell. Photo was made from a Pan-American Clipper by Walter H. Mullikin, first officer, as the plane circled the scene at 1000 feet.

Center of attraction for his fellow students at St. Francis De Paula School, Chicago, is 12-year-old John Popelka. They're shown admiring the medal which the Illinois Central Railroad recently presented to him for his quick-wittedness in reporting a fallen power line, thus preventing possible serious accidents and damage.

PRO GRIDDERS TANGLE AT OIL CITY TONIGHT

Four Officials Secured To Handle Professional Battle
STARTS AT 8 O'CLOCK

Numerous football fans are expected to travel to Oil City tonight to witness the professional football game between Warren's Red Jackets and the Stambaugh Merchants of Sharon. The contest, arranged by the Oil City Athletic Association, will start at 8 o'clock on Ramage-Hasson Field and a huge crowd is expected.

The Oil City VFW band will maneuver and play.

The Oiler association, with Joe Connors as general manager, desired to sponsor a professional football team in Oil City this season, but was unable to purchase uniforms and other equipment and had to give up the idea.

FOUR OFFICIALS
Joe Connors, general manager of the Oil City Athletic club, announced last night that four officials have been secured to handle the Warren Red Jacket-Stambaugh Merchants professional football game on the Ramage-Hasson Field tonight.

The officials who will work the contest are: John Hattr, Farrell, referee; Art Brady, Titusville, umpire; Louis Fornell, Sharpsville, head-linesman; and H. L. Wells, Oil City, field judge.

Admission price to the game will be 60 cents for those under 18 and $1.20 for adults.

The Stambaugh team is made up principally of former Mercer county high school stars, including boys from Sharon, Farrell and Brookfield. O. Mike Sebastian, former Pitt star, and Mike Lysohr are co-coaches.

The local pro team will average about 205 pounds per man, about 15 pounds more than the Sharon team, the probable starting players being Deets, Dahlgren, (if his ankle injury is better) Zerbe, Sirjanni, Tellman, Imperial, Pollack, Sedon, Intereiner, Haines, and Bevona.

That lineup was the one used to defeat the Buffalo Riverside Vets, 8-0 last Sunday plus a wealth of reserve material.

The 1946-47 season of the Elk bowling league will get under way next Monday evening when eight teams will take the slides in the two shifts on the opening night. League officials have arranged a schedule providing for matches to start at seven and nine o'clock each evening and captains are being urged to have teams on hand to start on schedule.

Kytoon Goes Long Way in Surf Casting

Domina Jalbert starts out with kytoon equipment as contestant in Martha's Vineyard, Mass., Striped Bass Derby, running until Oct. 15, top prize $1000. Jalbert peer up six-foot-long kytoon floating 3000 feet in air before setting off monorail trolley and assorted paraphernalia. Wind-filled parachute is off with rush as it propels trolley up toward kytoon. A grinning Jalbert unhooks 20-pounder and wind and is off until stopped by tripper some 2000 feet out. Tripper drops bait, line and float. Monorail trolley and parachute slide back down line to caster. Kytoon lends distance, gets more fish.

Red Birds Full Game Ahead; Down the Cincinnati Battlers While Brooks Are Postponed

By RALPH BODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The ability of the St. Louis Cardinals to come from behind in the late innings and then go on to win, is one of the primary reasons the Red Birds lead the Brooklyn Dodgers by a full game today in the torrid National League pennant race.

Several times during the present campaign, the Cards have pulled seeming defeats out of the fire in the waning part of a game. They did it again last night when Rookie Outfielder Bry Dussak hammered one of Southpaw Johnny Vander Meer's offerings into the left field bleachers at St. Louis in the tenth inning to enable the Cards to down the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1.

Stan Musial set the stage for Dussak's blow last night by singling in a run in the ninth to tie the score. Until then, Vander Meer had blanked the Cards 1-0 on two hits.

The Dodgers' scheduled game with the Philadelphia Phillies was postponed because of rain. The Brooks meet the Phils in a single game today while the Cards tangle with the Reds again under the lights.

Brooklyn will play off yesterday's postponement Thursday, at a doubleheader that day if rain cancels today's tilt.

Elsewhere in the National League:

erage vs. Stone & Webster; Struthers vs. Beyers.

Friday—7:00, S. S. Market vs. Maders; Texas Lunch vs. Key-stones; 9:00, Simonsens vs. Soda Mineral; Beckleys vs. Lewis Market.

The alleys are open afternoon and evenings all this week for the accommodation of bowlers wishing to practice before the league season opens.

ue, the Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader with the Pittsburgh Pirates, winning the opener, 13-3, and dropping the eight inning nightcap, 13-0.

In the American League, Hank Greenberg smashed three home runs to pace the Detroit Tigers to 4-3 and 10-1 victories over the St. Louis Browns.

The twin wins also stretched a Tiger winning streak to ten games and clinched second place for the Bengals as the pennant winning Boston Red Sox nosed out the third place New York Yankees, 5-4.

A scheduled National League twin bill between the Boston Braves and the Giants was postponed because of rain while the other American League clubs were not scheduled.

LOCALS MEET OILERS UNDER ARCS FRIDAY

Down River Aggregation Has Average of 261 Pounds

INJURED PLAYERS BACK

The Warren Dragons, starting on their first night game of the season and the second out of town game, will meet the Oil City High school Oilers Friday night, the game starting at 8:00.

The Dragons, coming back from a scoreless tie with Youngville and a 34-19 defeat at the hands of the Franklin Nursery, took the Titusville team 20-14 last Saturday to get back on the win wagon with little intentions of getting off again. The Dragon record is still a good one, having two wins, one loss and one tie to her record thus far.

Sig Decker and Dave Lane are back in the lineup after taking a couple weeks' rest due to injuries but Elmer Dutches and Frankie Shanshala are still out of action, Dutches because of pulled muscles in his shoulder and Shanshala because of wrenched muscles in his back. Dutches will probably be in the lineup either Friday night or the following week, the following week being the most probable time for his return while Shanshala is doubtful. His injury may hold him back for quite a few weeks yet.

Operating in the backfield for the Oilers will be Dick Dodd at quarter, Andy Hewston and Ted Ziemba at the halves and George Hinks at full. The average weight of the backfield is 161 pounds while the Oiler line averages 160 pounds.

The popular Oil City high school band will play selections during the contest and give a performance on the field between halves.

By DON CAMERON

Chapter 1

MARTIN KING took heed of the unmistakable signs and portents as he paid his breakfast check in Joe's, and knew that trouble lay in wait for him.

Ten minutes later, he walked up a flight of dark stairs and entered the city room. It was 11:45, and for the third time that year Martin was early.

Bill Doran, the Record's dour city editor, sat talking with a slender, elegant man of fifty, who wore a waxed yellow mustache. Doran boomed, "Marty, I've been phoning your place for an hour."

Martin sighed, "So soon?" He flung his coat across a chair and approached the pair with deliberate slowness. "Why not forget you used to be a newspaperman, Lee?" he asked the elegant one. "I get plenty of action from headquarters without needing you to smell out secret scandals."

"This is an exceptional tip, Martin. I'm charging Doran fifty dollars for it. We're going to kick Richard Searle into State's Prison."

A gleam of interest showed in Martin's eyes, but his grin was derisive. "It's been tried. I'd have taken a bath in turpentine to see him sweat when Leona Mitchell jumped out of his apartment window—or was pushed out—but the local nabobs who used to be his father's buddies hushed it up."

"You can take that bath now. Searle has borrowed and stolen from everybody he knows. He's got to go to the law is going to grease the way."

"For lechery, larceny—or just loitering?"

"Larceny, by fraud and by check-raising, to the tune of more than fifty thousand dollars."

Doran cut in. "He got twenty-eight thousand out of that rum-soaked, harriard Clarabelle Messmer."

"Clarabelle Dexter Schmidt Messmer," Dexter said softly. "Once my wife. She's rum-soaked and old and as loony as they come, but it was every cent she had."

The city editor's face turned a dull red. "I'm sorry, Lee. I clean forgot, it was so long ago. . . . Anyway, Marty, the cash went across Howard Morrissey's cravat in the Gold Mine Club, down in the Village."

"Naturally," Martin commented.

"After which Searle proceeded to take Morrissey down the line. He put on a crying act and Morrissey insulted him by writing him a check for twenty-five bucks. Morrissey must be a careless penman, because when the bank paid off, after Searle had avenged the insult by making some marks on the check, it was for twenty-five grand."

"Searle won't go to jail," predicted Martin. "He'll go into the East End."

"No," Dexter flicked cigarette ash into a cuspidor. "I talked with Morrie. He needs the money and intends to make Searle get it up. He won't have the guy killed till he's tried everything else."

The quivering was spreading from her lips to her cheeks.

Doran said, "Marty, your job is to convince Morrissey that he ought to holler copper. See Clarabelle first and make her give you a signed statement that she'll prosecute. Morrie will fall in line then, so he won't be left out if Searle manages to make some money out of settlement. Make Morrie put it in writing, too. Then, just to keep the record clear, see what Searle has to say."

"I thought he . . . meant it," Martin made his tone brisk and businesslike. "You can get the law after him and show him you're not to be trifled with."

"But how could he get the money in jail?"

"You can bet he'd try twice as hard to get it if he were there than otherwise. And remember, you aren't his only victim. If someone files a prior claim—"

"Oh, do you think that might happen?"

"Why not? If I were you, I'd swear out a warrant."

"I'll do it."

He drew a deep breath.

"We're printing a story about it tomorrow morning. We won't mention anything personal, like his asking you to marry him. I'll write a statement from you in writing to protect us in case Searle tries to make trouble."

"Tell me what to put down."

Martin lit a cigarette, closed his eyes.

"Write, 'Dear Mr. King: This is to inform you that I plan to bring immediate criminal action against Richard Searle because . . .'"

It had been easier than he had expected.

DR. WEBBER, HOW DID YOU LEARN ABOUT THE MESSAGE THAT MR. ORION HAD SCRATCHED ON THE SILVER BAR?

FROM AN INDIAN SILVERSMITH I'VE KNOWN FOR YEARS IN ACOMA. HE WAS IN TUCSON AND SENT WORD AT ONCE!

HE HAD BEEN PRESENT WHEN THE TWO STRANGERS CAME TO SELL THEIR SILVER. EVEN HELPED SEARCH FOR THEM WHEN THE MESSAGE WAS DISCOVERED.

THEN IF WE HAD PHOTOGRAPHS OF MOCHI AND HIS FELLA CONVICTS MAYBE THIS SILVERSMITH COULD IDENTIFY THE TWO STRANGERS—IF OUR THEORY IS CORRECT!

THAT'S AN IDEA, EASY! I'LL GET THEM FROM PRISON OFFICIALS AND WE'LL RUN OVER TO ACOMA AND SEE HIM AT ONCE!

OHOO! NOW WE'RE GETTIN' SOMEWHERE!

SWELL! AND INCIDENTALLY, I'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO SEE THAT MESQUITE!

"YES MAN"

My name is Fred Smith. I'm the "Yes Man" at Personal Finance Co. . . . that is—I'm the one who likes to say "Yes" to requests for Personal Loans.

You see—I'm the manager of our office—the one who's responsible for building up our business. The more times I say "yes" to requests for loans—the more business we do. And since making Personal Loans of $25 to $250 or more is our ONLY business—that's mighty important to me.

Therefore, if you need extra cash at any time—whether a little for a short time or a lot for a long time—you can depend on my doing my best to say "yes" to you.

Next time you can use a loan give me a chance to say "Yes"—won't you? I'll consider it a favor. See me at Personal Finance Co., 216 Liberty Street, second floor, over Lester Shoe Store. Phone 285.

Pipe Ready for Standards On New Meters

Pipe has arrived at the Police station for the 98 new parking meters that will be put in place as soon as they arrive. However the meters which were due in Warren about August 1st, have not arrived as yet and no word as to their arrival date has been received. The new meters will be of the same type as those now in use and will be placed on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue from Poplar to Liberty street and on the north side of Pennsylvania avenue from Hickory to Poplar streets.

The meters have proved a great success in this city and are now averaging about $1000 per month for the borough treasury. With the new meters the revenue should rise. The police department has been trained in the handling of the meter problem and make repairs and by careful inspection keep the machines working at all times. This has been a big feature in the operation of the machines in this city.

Warren Man Aids In Taking Log From Lake

When T. N. Nelson of the Chautauque Lake Board of Navigation Commissioners was at Cheney's Point the other day, he was informed by Mrs. Robert C. Schorman of Warren, Pa., who has a summer cottage there, of a menace to navigation in the form of a partially submerged log out in the middle of the lake, to which some thoughtless boatman had attached a white flag as a danger signal. Expressing a desire to have the log removed as a menace to navigation he was given the use of Mrs. Schorman's big new cruiser, "Minnie II," and accompanied by her sons, Tom, Jack and Jimmie set out to accomplish the task. They found that the log, only a very small portion of which showed above the surface, was about 20 feet in length with a thickness of about foot and a half, making it a great danger to small craft. A rope was thrown around it and it was towed to shore. The log of hemlock was probably a relic of the old logging days when the John T. Wilson and L. B. Warner lumber yards floated logs from the lake down the outlet to the sawmills in Jamestown.

Mr. Nelson and the other commissioners, Marvin A. Candegren of Jamestown and Joseph Dornbarger of Mayville, deeply appreciate the help given by Mrs. Schorman and others in removing

Seeding Soon Complete On Playground

Sheffield, Sept. 24—Work of preparing the soil for seeding has continued the past few weeks and the big job of seeding should be completed this weekend. Fertilizer and lime have already been spread and seeding should be completed by Saturday providing the weather and labor are favorable. In the event the work is completed this weekend it would be advisable for everyone including the horse owners of the town to stay off the plot and give the seed a chance to get started properly.

Last week 25 workers contributed a total of 113 hours for the benefit of the playground and it is hoped that this week will bring forth more workers. Playground equipment continues to arrive and storage space for this equipment must be provided. The Tuesday night games continue to attract nice crowds, but there has been room for still more people the past few weeks. It is hoped that the opening of school will bring on more interest in these Tuesday evening programs, so bring your friends and come down to enjoy those games. You will find them profitable and enjoyable.
